OFSTED Grade 1 Teaching and Exemplary Review Process

Eden Training gained re-accreditation in 2012 for excellent impartial advice and guidance.

Doing the course has greatly improved my confidence levels and I would recommend anyone who wishes to do childcare courses to contact Eden." Learner.

"Eden's flexible approach has worked well with our learners and helped them to progress through their training." Workplace.

Celebrating 10 years of Quality Training!

Eden Training Ltd was established as a registered company in October 2002 and started training in January 2003.

What's in a name?

At Eden Training Ltd we like to feel we are good at what we do and it's encouraging when Ofsted, City & Guilds, the Institute for Leadership and Management, CACHE and others endorse this. The odd business award is encouraging too. However, we have been made aware of some confusion created by companies in other parts of the Country and Essex using similar names (Eden College, Eden Training Solutions, Eden Alternative Training, Eden Training Consultancy etc).

If you search for Eden Training Ltd you will have no trouble finding us because we are the first and the best. For the avoidance of doubt, here is how you can tell the real deal:

Our logo is unique  eden training look out for it

Our website is www.edentraining.co.uk.

Our phone number: just one easy number 01702 680068.

If you hear about "Eden" and the feedback is less than excellent it's probably not us. If in doubt, give us a ring and we'll be happy to clarify any confusion.

We have built our reputation on our name: Eden Training Ltd.

Community Involvement: Latest Fundraising

Our Level 1 learners have recently been completing their enterprise activity for their course. They had to provide a service or product and so decided on a cake sale.

The learners worked together to choose suitable cakes to sell and all decided to donate the money to Clic Sargent, a charity that supports children with cancer.

We raised £51.34 over the two weeks of the cake sale.

Eden Training was inspected by Ofsted in February 2012 as part of the NOVA Consortium, we were pleased to be recognised for our outstanding practice. Some comments made were:

"Excellent increase in success rates - well above national average."

"Exemplary 12 week review process with excellent paperwork and interaction with managers and learners."

"Excellent teaching."

"Very good embedded health and safety and equality and diversity."

"Very good course management and leadership."

"A staff group that focus on supporting learners not just achieving qualifications."

Awarding Bodies have assessed Eden Training's provision as "delivering high quality, well planned training." Cache, ILM
